

120

Cantiga de loor

Those who believe my words will give praise to the Virgin who protects us

For without her they will not have God
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
nor will they do his will
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
nor will they know God's favour; and so my advice is this:
Those who believe my words will give praise
to the Virgin who protects us

Knowing this they will serve her
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
and will stay in her favour
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
and will love her above all other, which is a very wise course.
Those who believe my words will give praise
to the Virgin who protects us

For in her they will always find
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
great mercy and goodness
(Those who believe my words will give praise)
which will give them such rewards that they will not want for anything
Those who believe my words will give praise
to the Virgin who protects us