

Textuality in Transition

A workshop on editing texts from medieval Britain to celebrate the 150th birthday of

The Early English Text Society

for graduate students and recently postdoctoral scholars.

To be taught by the Council of the Society and others, including Richard Beadle, Julia Boffey, Richard Dance, Susan Irvine, William Marx, Andy Orchard, Ad Putter, Jeremy Smith and H. L. Spencer.

To be held at St Anne's College, Oxford, UK, from 1.30 p.m. on 20 May till 4.30p.m. on 21 May 2014.

£14 for members of the EETS or £24 for non-members.

Dinner on 20 May and lunch on 21 May will be provided free.

For registration online, see <http://www.eets.org.uk/> under "2014 Anniversary"

For information, contact Daniel Wakelin on daniel.wakelin@ell.ox.ac.uk

For membership of the EETS and information, see <http://www.eets.org.uk/>

and for EETS tweets see @EEngTextSoc