

Digital Methods for Medieval Hispanic Studies

Informática y textos hispánicos medievales

International Colloquium of the Medieval Hispanic Text and Manuscript Seminar

8-9 July 2011

Magdalen College, Oxford

8 July

10.00-11.00 Registration

11.00 Welcome and Introduction: Stephen Parkinson/Juan-Carlos Conde

11.15 Harvey Sharrer: Updating PhiloBiblon

12.00 Paul Spence: Digital Humanities and Hispanic Studies Meet: the CHARTA (Corpus Hispanico y Americano en la red: textos antiguos) network

1.00 Lunch

2.30 Andrés Enrique-Arias: New resources for the study of Spanish medieval language and culture through its biblical translations: the Biblia Medieval corpus and website

3.15 Francisco Gago Jover: The Digital Library of Old Spanish Texts: Challenges and Possibilities

4.00 Coffee break

4.30 Michael Ferreira: Developments in the medieval content of the Corpus del español and the Corpus do português

5.30 Esther Gómez-Sierra: Dialogyca BDDH (Biblioteca Digital de Diálogo Hispánico): Hispanic dialogues on the web

6.30 Reception and Conference Dinner

9 July.

9.15 Stephen Parkinson: The Cantigas de Santa Maria database and critical edition

9.45 Fiona Maguire and Dorothy Severin: The Electronic Library of 15th century Castilian Cancionero Manuscripts

10.30 Isabel Navas Ocaña: Biblioteca digital de escritoras medievales hispánicas

11.15 Susana Pedro: The Dictionary of Portuguese Palaeographic Abbreviations project: moving a pioneer's work into the Digital Age

12.00 John Pybus: Oxford Virtual Research Environment for the Study of Documents and Manuscripts

For details of conference registration (free!), dinner booking, transport and accommodation, and further programme details, contact esm@mod-langs.ox.ac.uk or see the Colloquium website <http://users.ox.ac.uk/mmlcsm/colloquium.html>