Instructions

There are three suggested courses on the left. The easy course is designed for absolute beginners and there is increasing difficulty with the medium and hard courses. Having chosen your course, the aim is to go from the start and find the markers attached to wooden posts in the order listed for your course (be careful to go to the right number!), then finish back where you started. It is also possible to visit any of the markers in any order if you wish. You can either record the two-letter codes on the marker in the boxes below, or you can use a smartphone to take photos of the markers. There is an app which will check the codes from your photos also give you a time for the course and between posts. Go to www.snapnav.co.uk for details. You can also check your answers by emailing secretary@ouoc.org.uk.
