

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, cult media and all things speculative.

Sat 0th Week (6th Oct) 2-5pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In SNSC Le May Room at Worcester. Drop in for obligation-free cake, drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (10th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

Location TBC. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

Discussion and film meetings

We meet every Wednesday at 8pm, mostly in Pembroke, Somerville or Worcester. We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a collaborative storytelling evening. This term among other things we will also be playing Werewolf (a fiendish and silly role-playing game), discussing Jasper Fforde's writing, and watching the fabulous "What We Do in the Shadows" for our Halloween event.

Library

Every now and again we also host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room or occasionally in the pub! These evenings are an opportunity to socialise and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our events mailing list.
