

Easter Term Lectures 2007

Lectures take place in the Finley Library at the Lauterpacht Centre, 5 Cranmer Road, Cambridge.

Friday Lunchtime Lectures are preceded by a sandwich lunch from 12.30pm provided courtesy of Cambridge University Press (www.cambridge.org/law). The PhD Roundtable Talks generally take place on the first Thursday of each month during term time and are open to research students and teaching staff of the University only.

Centre lectures are recognised by both the Law Society and the Bar Council as Continuing Professional Development (CPD) accredited courses. CPD credits can be claimed for each lecture by signing the attendance sheet provided.
