Oxford Text Archive
1976-2006

30th Birthday Celebration

Thursday 21st September 2006
Oxford University Computing Services
University of Oxford, 13 Banbury Road, Oxford, OX2 6NN

- 09:30 -- Arrival, coffee
- 10:00 -- Welcome from Stuart Lee, (Acting) Director of OUCS.
- 10:10 -- Martin Wynne on "Introduction: The OTA and the AHDS today" .
- 10:30 -- Alan Morrison on "From dustbin policy to data service"
- 11:00 -- Coffee Break
- 11:30 -- Lou Burnard on "Autolycus wired: three decades of snapping up unconsidered trifles"
- 12:30 -- Buffet Lunch (including birthday cake!)
- 13:30 -- Julia Flanders on "Historicizing humanities computing"
- 14:00 -- Claire Warwick on "A Dubious Legacy: Problems of the re-use of data for digital humanities research"
- 14:30 -- Peter Robinson on " Why the OTA is obsolete (or should be...)"
- 15:00 -- Coffee Break
- 15:30 -- Willard McCarty on "Smell of food on the wind, then and now"
- 16:00 -- Panel Session: The future of electronic text archives, featuring Yorick Wilks, Michael Popham, Peter Robinson, and surprise guest stars
- 17:00 -- End

Conference participants are invited to view the new development OTA website at http://ota.ox.ac.uk/new/. Please send feedback to OTA30@ota.ox.ac.uk.

Please let one of the organisers know if you would like to join us for drinks and dinner after the day's proceedings at Branca on Walton Street.

ahds literature, languages and linguistics