

OUSFG Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, horror and all things speculative. We usually meet on Wednesdays during term, and love visitors!

Sun 1st Week (8th Oct) 3-6pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In Somerville. Drop in for obligation-free cake (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (12th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

In Pembroke. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

Library

Every now and again we host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room (or occasionally at a pub!). These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

Discussion and film meetings

Wednesday meetings also start at 8pm, and are held in either Pembroke or Somerville. We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a discussion about Oxford in SF. In 3rd week we'll have both a library meeting and a collaborative story-writing event.

In 4th week we'll be watching Little Shop of Horrors for Our annual Halloween movie night!
