WEEK

1

Series 11, Episode 1 – The Woman Who Fell to Earth – Live Screening

Sunday 7th October, 6:30pm, Worcester College (Room to be confirmed)

That's right – we're watching the first eight episodes of Jodie's first series on the BIG SCREEN! Well, sadly Episode 1 is the exception for this, as Hillary Clinton's visit to Mansfield has interrupted our usual Sunday night auditorium booking. You probably won't have been to WhoSoc before, but fear not – this is the perfect hopping on point. Whether you plan to attend our Thursday meetings or not, you're very welcome to come along and join us for what's shaping up to be spectacular series. Keep an eye on our Facebook and Twitter feeds (both @OxfordDoctorWho) for more details. We'll wait at the main entrance of the college until a couple of minutes before the episode airs (6:45pm) to make sure you know where to find us.

WELCOME FRESHERS! Ft. Blink and re-run of Series 11, Episode 1

Thursday 11th October, 8pm, Seminar Room East, Mansfield College

Freshers Drinks is the perfect start to the WhoSoc year. There'll be free drinks and snacks, meeting and greeting, and lots of fierce defending of unpopular opinions. At about 8:30pm, we're going to refrain from blinking for 45 minutes as we watch the first story to feature fan-favourite monsters the Weeping Angels. Then there'll be a short break if you need to head off early, and after that we'll watch Series 11 opener The Woman Who Fell to Earth – an important screening whether you're watching it for the first time or the 13th! Join us as we head to the pub afterwards.

GEEK QUIZ!!

Thursday 8th November, 8pm, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre, Worcester College

In the legendary Geek Quiz, members of Oxford's geekiest societies get together to battle it out for the crown of "team who won that term". If you can write a round not entirely related to Doctor Who, bring it along. Please ensure your round is visual – make a PowerPoint with each question displayed on a different slide. Our society usually divides up into a few different teams – come along and help us beat those pesky TrekSoc-ers!

Steven Moffat RANDOMIZER!!

Thursday 15th November, 8pm, Seminar Room East, Mansfield College

Steven Moffat – head writer of both Matt Smith's and Peter Capaldi's eras – is quite divisive among the fandom (and quite wonderful too). So we're going to RANDOMIZE HIM! There are stories spread across the 2010-2017 era that we never get to watch at WhoSoc, because there are never enough weeks in the Oxford year. So when we arrive this Thursday, we're going to hold a random draw of one Smith and one Capaldi episode to watch. We think it will be exciting to arrive at WhoSoc without any preconceived notions of what we're about to watch and hope the results will be very fun!

We'll be joined by none other than Mr Simon Guerrier, who has written countless prose and audio stories for Doctor Who, and most recently co-wrote The Women Who Lived with The Fan Show's Christel Dee. Afterwards, we'll head back to Mansfield to hear more from Simon all about his exciting career and involvement with the show.

Earthshock + Committee Meeting

Thursday 29th November, 8pm, Seminar Room East, Mansfield College

How on Earth have we made it through the term without watching anything from the 1980s?? One of the most highly-acclaimed Fifth Doctor stories is Earthshock – a very significant story in two major ways that, if you don't yet know what they are – we don't want to spoil the surprise for you! Come and get Earth-shook with us and celebrate an amazing term at WhoSoc as we watch this 1982 adventure. All are welcome to stick around for the committee meeting afterwards to have your say in what we do next term.
