The Dominators

Thursday 21st April, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

Welcome back to WhoSoc for what should be a very exciting Trinity term, beginning with an unofficial meeting led by Victoria. Join us as the Second Doctor, Jamie and Zoe “work with the Dulcians of the planet Dulkis to prevent the alien Dominators from blowing up Dulkis”, as Wikipedia so eloquently put it!

WEEK

The Sea Devils

Thursday 28th April, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

The Third Doctor and Jo visit the Master on an isolated English Channel Island - where instead of a TARDIS, they find an old race ready to re-emerge as Earth’s rulers. It’s all very fishy, quite literally - it’s the Master and a race of reptiles in hibernation under the sea.

Kiss Kiss Bang Bang + The Secrets of the Stars

Thursday 5th May, 8pm - Miles Room, St Peter’s College

It’s spinoff week! Starting with Torchwood and old friends causing problems for the team in Kiss Kiss Bang Bang, more trouble finds Sarah in the shape of an astrologer with The Secrets of the Stars.

The Stones of Blood + trip

Thursday 12th May, 8pm - Miles Room, St Peter’s College

Once again, we take a trip into the adventures of Tom Baker as the Fourth Doctor, with a mysterious not-Stonehenge stone circle and some strange Druidic rituals. Katrin, our Society Librarian, will be guiding us through this episode with her musings, which will be fascinating as she herself has written on it at length for The Black Archives!

The trip to the Rollright Stones, where some filming for the serial occurred, will be taking place on Sunday 15th May, with further details to follow.

Mark of the Rani

Thursday 19th May, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

In a mining town, the Sixth Doctor and Peri encounter two rogue Time Lords. Experimenting with human brains, the Rani and the Master intend on using Earth as the powerbase, stealing brain fluid of the Industrial Revolution.

Enlightenment

Tuesday 24th May, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

The conclusion to the Black Guardian trilogy, the Fifth Doctor, Tegan and Turlough encounter the Eternals racing ships through space. An attempt to win the prize of Enlightenment, they are caught up with the Black Guardian's desire to finally kill the Doctor, and a crew that will do anything to win.

The Geek Quiz!

Thursday 26th May, 8pm - Fletcher Room, Trinity College

It's Geek Quiz time! Battle it out with the geekiest societies Oxford has to offer for "team who won that term" (an honorific that no one can ever quite remember!). Nevertheless, do come along - we are often divided into a few teams, ready to take on Pokeballs, TrekSoc-ers and Oxford's mini version of Hogwarts!

If you can write a round that is related to the geek societies at large (not entirely Doctor-Who related), do bring it along!

The Pilot, Praxeus + LGBTQ+ documentary

Thursday 2nd June, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

Marking Pride Month, we'll be taking a dive into queer stories! Beginning with The Pilot, the first episode of season 10 introduces Bill Potts, the first openly gay full-time companion. Alongside the Twelfth Doctor and Nardole, Bill discovers that a potential girlfriend may have her trapped with no way to escape.

Praxeus follows the Thirteenth Doctor, Yaz, Graham and Ryan investigating a series of strange events: aggressive birds, a bacterium transforming skin into grey scales, and an ex-police officer and his astronaut husband.

Finally, we will be watching an LGBTQ+ documentary on the YouTube channel as part of the Fan Show, looking at queer rep in the world of Doctor Who!

The Angels Take Manhattan + Termly Meal

Thursday 9th June, 8pm - Levine Auditorium, Trinity College

Our termly meal will be taking place beforehand. Feel free to come along for the episode at the usual time, where we will be watching the Weeping Angels take on Eleven, Amy and Rory in New York, somehow following the plot of a book written in the 1930s.

The Tenth Planet + Committee Meeting

Thursday 16th June, 8pm - Miles Room, St Peter's College

Our final event of the year! The Tenth Planet features companions Ben and Polly alongside the First Doctor, the first regeneration, and the first appearance of the Cybermen! Also, not to forget - termly committee meeting! Come along and vote on episodes for the new academic year. Never too early to think ahead!
